

Teacher: Daughety	Subject: ART-		Grade: 6, 7, 8	Date: Mar 12-16
GEORGIA STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE	VA6PR.2 Creates artwork reflecting a range of concepts, ideas, and subject matter. VA8CU.1 Discovers how the creative process relates to art history.
LEARNING TARGETS	Paper mache’ masks – How do I create a work on art in the style of ANDY WARHOL using repetitive elements to convey my idea of unity in repetition and color ELEMENTS: Color, Line, Shape, Form PRINCIPLES: Repetition and Variation, Emphasis
OPENING	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
	Smart Board presentation of the works of Andy Warhol And Scholastic ART Magazine	Smart Board and teacher instruction on the life and work of Andy Warhol	Get out work and continue from the day before	Get out work and continue from the day before	Get out work and continue from the day before
WORK SESSION	Explaining to the students the process of repetition and variation with color shape form using a familiar object in their art project	Students create their own idea or concept in a work they create themselves. Constant teacher rotation and observations and comments	Students create their own idea or concept in a work they create themselves. Constant teacher rotation and observations and comments	Students create their own idea or concept in a work they create themselves. Constant teacher rotation and observations and comments	Students create their own idea or concept in a work they create themselves. Constant teacher rotation and observations and comments
CLOSING	Cleanup and putting their work in their folders	Cleanup and putting their work in their folders	Cleanup and putting their work in their folders	Cleanup and putting their work in their folders	Cleanup and putting their work in their folders
Materials ASSESSMENT	Card stock paper, templet the students drew themselves or copied from the teacher	Color, Markers, 12x18 paper glue sticks, pencils	Color, Markers, 12x18 paper glue sticks, pencils	Color, Markers, 12x18 paper glue sticks, pencils	Color, Markers, 12x18 paper glue sticks, pencils
HOMEWORK	none
Modifications & Accommodations	Some students will need assistance with their design. Others will work at a higher creative level	Some students will need assistance transferring their design	Some students will need assistance cutting out their templet	Continued.	Continued.